Docket No. 16,120

ESTATE OF LOUISE P. V. WHITCOMB,

Deceased,

By

JOHN FREULER, Administrator,

Petitioner.

COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE,

Respondent.

PETITION.

The above named petitioner hereby petitions for a re-determination of the deficiency set forth by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue in his notice of deficiency (IT:PA:1-60D-GWF-105) dated March 23, 1926, and as the basis of his proceeding alleges as follows:

1. Louise P. V. Whitcomb was, up to her death in 1921, a non-resident alien individual. John Freuler, Administrator of the decedent's Estate, is an individual residing in San Francisco, California.

2. The notice of deficiency (a copy of which is attached and marked "Exhibit A") was mailed to the petitioner on March 23, 1926.

3. The taxes in controversy are income taxes for the calendar year 1921 and for the amount of $723.60. [3]

4. The determination of tax set forth in the said notice of deficiency is based upon the following error:

The Commissioner in determining the taxable income of the decedent, up to the date of her death in 1921, added to her distributive share of the net income of the trust estate of A. C. Whitcomb, a portion of the depreciation and losses sustained by and allowable to the said Estate in determining its net income for the taxable year 1921.

5. The facts upon which the petitioner relies as the basis of this proceeding are as follows:

A fiduciary return on Form 1041 was filed for the trust estate of A. C. Whitcomb for 1921 by the Trustee. In computing the net income of the said Estate and the distributive income of each beneficiary thereof, there were claimed as deductions $43,003.16 as depreciation on the physical assets of the Estate used in producing the income thereof, and $3,587.50 as losses sustained on the sale of Liberty Bonds, a total deduction of $46,590.66. In computing the distributive share of net income of each of the beneficiaries of the said Estate, including the petitioner, the Commissioner has added back to such distributive share a proportionate part of the depreciation [4] and losses sustained by the Estate, the total depreciation and losses so added back being $46,590.66, of which $7,765.08 was added back to the distributive share of net income of the petitioner.

6. The propositions of law involved are these:

The income to be included in the individual return of the petitioner as income from the trust estate created by A. C. Whitcomb is limited to the petitioner's distributive share of the correctly computed net income of the Estate.

WHEREFORE, the petitioner prays that it be held by the Board that the error above mentioned was made by respondent and that no liability rests upon the petitioner to pay the taxes asserted in the notice of deficiency, and for such other relief as may appear equitable and proper as this cause progresses.

Madam:

The determination of your income tax liability for the year 1921, as set forth in office letter dated February 8, 1926, disclosed a deficiency in tax amounting to $723.60.

In accordance with the provisions of Section 274 of the Revenue Act of 1926, you are allowed 60 days from the date of mailing of this letter within which to file a petition for the redetermination of this deficiency. Any such petition must be addressed to the United States Board of Tax Appeals, Earle Building, Washington, D. C., and must be mailed in time to reach the Board within the 60-day period, not counting Sunday as the sixtieth day.

Where a taxpayer has been given an opportunity to file a petition with the United States Board of Tax Appeals and has not done so within the 60 days prescribed and an assessment has been made, or where a taxpayer has filed a petition and an assessment in accordance with the final decision on such petition has been made, the unpaid amount of the assesment must be paid upon notice and demand from the Collector of Internal Revenue. No claim for abatement can be entertained.

If you acquiesce in this determination and do not desire to file a petition with the United States Board of Tax Appeals, you are requested to execute a waiver of your right to file a petition with the United States Board of Tax Appeals on the enclosed Form A, and forward it to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C., for the attention of IT:PA:1, GWF-105-60D. In the event that you acquiesce in a part of the determination, the waiver should be executed with respect to the items to which you agree.

Respectfully,

D. H. Blair,

Deficiency in Tax—$723.60

An audit in connection with the fiduciary return of income, Form 1041, filed for the Estate of A. C. Whitcomb, discloses your distributive share of the net income of the estate as corrected to be $10,-019.97 instead of $2,254.89 as reported in your return. This amount has been reduced by $273.30, representing non-taxable Liberty Bond interest reported from the estate, leaving taxable distributive income of $9,746.67. The change is due to certain adjustments made in the fiduciary return, which are fully explained in a letter of this date addressed to Mr. James Otis, Trustee under the Will of A. C. Whitcomb, deceased.

Your taxable net income as corrected is $9,746.67 upon which the correct tax liability is $797.97. Since the records disclose a previous assessment of $74.37, there is a deficiency of $723.60.

Payment of the tax should not be made until a bill is received from the Collector of Internal Revenue for your district, and remittance should then be made to him.

ANSWER.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, by his attorney, A. W. Gregg, General Counsel, Bureau of Internal Revenue, for answer to the petition of the above-named taxpayer, admits and denies as follows:

(1) Admits the allegations contained in paragraph 1 of the petition.

(2) Admits the allegations contained in paragraph 2 of the petition.

(3) Admits the allegations contained in paragraph 3 of the petition.

(4) Denies that he committed the error alleged in paragraph 4 of the petition.

(5) Admits that a fiduciary return was filed for the trust estate of A. C. Whitcomb, for the year 1921 by the trustee, that deductions on account of depreciation and losses on the sale of Liberty Bonds was claimed on such return in the amounts alleged in paragraph 5 of the petition, and that the Commissioner restored such deductions to income and thereby proportionately increased the distributive shares reported for the beneficiaries. Denies, however, that any loss was sustained on the sale of Liberty Bonds, or that if a loss was sustained, the amount thereof was $3,587.50, and further denies any depreciation was sustained or that if depreciation was sustained, the amount thereof was $43,003.16. Denies that the trustee was empowered or required by the trust instruments to deduct depreciation for losses on the sale of capital assets in determining the distributive shares of the beneficiaries. [9]

(6) Denies generally and specifically each and every allegation in the taxpayer's petition contained not hereinbefore admitted, qualified or denied.

WHEREFORE it is prayed that the taxpayer's appeal be denied.

The determination of tax set forth in each of said notices of deficiency is based upon the following errors: [16]

(a) Respondent erred in adding back to the net distributive income of each of the respective petitioners for the respective taxable years herein involved a portion of the depreciation sustained during said respective years by the trust estate created by the will of A. Said total depreciation of said trust estate erroneously included by the respondent as aforesaid, as a part of the taxable net income of the petitioners is as follows:

5. The facts upon which the respective petitioners rely as the basis of their respective proceedings are as follows:

(a) Petitioners, and each of them, are the life beneficiaries of the estate of A. C. Whitcomb, deceased.

A. C. Whitcomb died in the year 1889, or thereabouts, leaving a last will and testament, copy of which is attached hereto and marked Exhibit "P."

The last will and testament of A. C. Whitcomb, deceased, [18] was duly proved and probated in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the City and County of San Francisco.

The Executors named in the will of A. C. Whitcomb were Jerome Lincoln and Adolphus Darwin Tuttle, who were directed to carry out the provisions of said will and administer the Estate of A. C. Whitcomb as therein provided.

The income from the trust estate was paid in equal shares to Louise P. V. Whitcomb, Adolph Whitcomb and Charlotte A. W. Lepic until the death of Adolph Whitcomb, which occurred September 5, 1914. Thereafter and until the death of said Louise P. V. Whitcomb on June 14, 1921, the one-third share of the said Adolph Whitcomb in the income was paid in three equal parts to his widow, Marguerite Marie E. G. T. Whitcomb, and his two children, Lydia L. I. Whitcomb and Louise A. F. E. Whitcomb, petitioners herein; the remaining two-thirds of the income from the trust estate was paid in equal shares to Louise P. V. Whitcomb and Charlotte A. W. Lepic. From June 14, 1921, until on or about August 28, 1925, four-ninths of the total net income of said trust [19] estate was paid to said widow and said two children of Adolph Whitcomb, petitioners herein, an additional four-ninths thereof to Charlotte A. W. Lepic, petitioner herein, and the remaining one-ninth thereof to John Freuler, Administrator of the Estate of Louise P.

V. Whitcomb, deceased, petitioner herein. At all times herein mentioned since August 28, 1925, one-half of the income has been paid to said widow and two children of Adolph Whitcomb, petitioners herein, and the remaining one-half thereof to Charlotte A. W. Lepic, petitioner herein. Upon the death of Charlotte A. W. Lepic said trust will terminate and the remainder interests in the assets of said trust estate will vest in possession and enjoyment.

(b) The original Trustee of said Estate, provided for under Seventh Paragraph of the will of A. C. Whitcomb, was Jerome Lincoln, who had power to appoint his successors in trust. On or about the 3rd day of September, 1891, said Jerome Lincoln, acting under said power of appointment, by an instrument in writing, duly executed, given, and made, appointed Winfield S. Jones, Jerome B. Lincoln and James Otis to be his successors under said trust. [20]

On or about the 23rd day of February, 1896, the said Jerome Lincoln died, and said Winfield S. Jones, Jerome B. Lincoln and James Otis became Trustees of said trust. Thereafter the said Winfield S. Jones and Jerome B. Lincoln died, and James Otis became the sole surviving Trustee of said trust. At all times since the year 1905 said James Otis has been and now is the sole Trustee of said trust.

(c) On or about the 11th day of April, 1890, by decree of final distribution in the matter of the Estate of said A. C. Whitcomb, deceased, the Superior Court of the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, duly ordered and decreed that certain property be distributed in trust. An itemized list of said property so distributed is attached hereto, made a part hereof and marked Exhibit "Q."

Said property consisted almost entirely of assets of a character nondepreciable by wear, tear and exhaustion. On or about February 23, 1906, James Otis, as trustee of said trust estate, owned and held promissory notes, mortgages, bonds, corporate stocks and savings deposits in the aggregate value of $3,082,907.42 together with the lots mentioned in Exhibit "Q" and other unimproved lots valued at approximately $19,000.00. During the years 1906 to 1924 inclusive said trustee purchased and constructed hotels, buildings, improvements and hotel furniture and fixtures at a total cost of over $2,000,000.00, thus changing a large part of the corpus [21] of said trust estate from property and assets of a nondepreciable character by wear, tear and exhaustion to property of a highly depreciable character by wear, tear and exhaustion. On November 12, 1928, James Otis, as said trustee, held only one unimproved lot, only $113,915.00 in bonds and stocks and only $66,000 in promissory notes.

(d) During the years 1921 to 1926, inclusive, depreciation was sustained and allowed as a deduc-tion to said Trust Estate, by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, in the following amounts:

1921	$43,003.16
1922	39,408.00
1923	39,408.00
1924	39,258.00
1925	39,108.00
1926	55,833.00

Prior to the time that the Trustee of said Trust Estate converted the assets thereof from non-depreciable to depreciable property, it was the practice to distribute to the life beneficiaries thereof the entire net income therefrom. After said conversion, the surviving Trustee, James Otis, continued, on the advice of his attorney, to distribute the net income of said Estate to the life beneficiaries thereof without settling up a reserve to take care of depreciation sustained on depreciable assets. [22]

(e) On or about the 5th day of September, 1928, the trustee of said estate filed in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the City and County of San Francisco, having jurisdiction of said estate, a petition for the settlement of his account of his trusteeship for the period from February 23, 1903 to February 23, 1918. On the hearing of said petition, Napoleon Charles Louis Lepic and Charlotte de Rochechouart, both of whom are remaindermen and not life-beneficiaries, objected to the approval of said account and protested against the said practice of said trustee in making distributions to the life beneficiaries of said estate without setting aside a reserve for said depreciation and for certain losses. On or about the 19th day of September, 1928, the said Superior Court allowed said objections in part and ordered that said trustee withhold annually, as a reserve for depreciation of the assets of said estate, such an amount as might be reasonable and proper and ordered that the respective petitioners repay to the said trustee the respective amounts received by them during the years 1913 to 1927, both inclusive, as set forth in said objections, as the respective amount which should have been retained by said trustee as a reserve for depreciation for each of said years. A copy of said order is attached hereto, made a part hereof and marked Exhibit "R."

By said order the respective petitioners were legally [23] bound to repay to said trustee their respective distributive shares of the following respective amounts on account of depreciation sustained by the trust assets during the respective taxable years herein involved:

Year	1921	1922	1923
Amount	$43,003.16	$39,408.00	$39,408.00
Year	1924	1925	1926
Amount	$39,258.00	$39,108.00	$55,833.00

(f) Thereafter the respective petitioners repaid to said estate the total respective proportionate amounts required of them with respect to the depreciation for the years 1913 to 1927, both inclusive, in the total amount of $622,434.11.

The respective amounts which each of the petitioners paid back to said estate on account of said depreciation for the taxable years herein involved are the respective proportional amounts of the depreciation of the assets of said trust estate erroneously added back by respondent, as aforesaid, to each of the petitioners' taxable net income for the taxable years herein involved. Since the petitioners received and were paid said amounts illegally under mistake of law and fact, and have returned the same to said trust estate, and were never legally entitled to receive any part thereof, and are not now [24] in receipt of the same or any part thereof, said amounts do not constitute taxable income of the respective petitioners. Respondent has refused and declined to compute the tax liability of petitioners in accordance with the aforesaid facts, which materially affect the determination of income derived from the trust estate; but has erroneously and wrongfully held that his former determination in reference to the tax liability should be adhered to and affirmed.

WHEREFORE, petitioners, and each of them, pray that this Board may hear their consolidated proceedings and that it be held by this Board that the errors above mentioned were made by respondent and for such other relief as may appear equitable and proper as the cause progresses.

Promulgated February 11, 1931.

The petitioners are beneficiaries of a certain trust and entitled to the income thereof. The trustee, in computing the net income of the trust for 1921 to 1926, inclusive, deducted certain amounts for exhaustion, wear and tear of the trust property, but distributed among the petitioners the amounts deducted for exhaustion, wear and tear, together with the net income so computed. Subsequently a court of competent jurisdiction in a proper suit brought by the remaindermen decided that the trustee should have retained the amounts for exhaustion, wear and tear of the trust property and ordered the petitioners to repay said amounts to the trustee. Held, that the amounts deducted for exhaustion, wear and tear of the trust property in the years 1921 to 1926, inclusive, were not income to the petitioners.

JOHN D. FOLEY, ESQ., for the respondent. [32]

These proceedings, which were duly consolidated for hearing and decision, are for the redetermination of deficiencies in income tax which the respondent has asserted as follows:

	1921	1922	1923	1924	1925	1926
Guerrite T. Whitcomb	$524.78	$562.61	$401.95	$373.43	$303.83	$494.25

Ida L. Whitcomb	524.78	562.61	401.95	373.43	303.83	494.25
of Louise
W. V. Whitcomb	902.12	406.96	281.92	262.57	251.27	.....
Charlotte A. W. Lepic	2,416.21	2,909.40	2,399.50	2,757.60	2,006.36	3,278.99

The petitioners allege that the respondent erred in adding to their respective incomes as returned by them for the years mentioned, the depreciation sustained during those years by a certain trust estate of which they were beneficiaries.

FINDINGS OF FACT.

Louise P. V. Whitcomb was from some time in 1889 until her death on June 14, 1921, the widow of A. C. Whitcomb, deceased. The petitioner Charlotte A. W. Lepic is the daughter of the said A. C. Whitcomb, deceased. The petitioners Marguerite T. Whitcomb, Louise A. Whitcomb, and Lydia L. Whitcomb, are the widow and two children of Adolph Whitcomb, deceased, who was the son of A. C. Whitcomb, deceased. [33]

The said A. C. Whitcomb died in the year 1889, a resident of the State of California, leaving a last will and testament which was duly admitted to probate and record by the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the City and County of San Francisco. Said last will and testament provided, among other things, as follows:

7th. I give to my hereinafter named Executor, Jerome Lincoln of said San Francisco, all the rest of my property, real, personal or mixed, except what I may have in France, of every kind and nature and not hereinbefore disposed of, after the payment of my debts, in Trust, nevertheless, to pay over to my said wife, Louise Palmyre Vion Whitcomb one-third part of the interest thereon or income therefrom, for and during her natural life, and the other two-thirds parts to my two children, born of her; one Adolph, born on or about the 23rd day of February, 1880, and the other Charlotte Andree, born on or about the 4th day of December, 1882, with the reversion or remainder of the whole three-thirds parts to the descendants "per stirpes" of the said two children, if any be alive at the time of the death of the said two children; and if none be alive at that time, to Harvard College, in conformity with the provisions named or indicated in Section Six (6) of this Will, having reference to said Harvard College.

The said will contained no directions in regard to the manner in which the income from the trust should be computed, accounts kept, or depreciation provided for.

James Otis was appointed a trustee of said trust on February 23, 1896. He has acted as such trustee continuously since that date, and since the year 1905 he has been the sole trustee of said trust. [34]

The original trust estate consisted largely of cash, bonds, stocks and notes. On February 23, 1906, the trust estate consisted of bonds, corporate stocks, cash and promissory notes secured by mortgages, of a total value of more than $3,000,000, and certain parcels of real estate, most of which were in San Francisco. On April 18, 1906, the San Francisco earthquake and fire occurred. All of the improvements on the San Francisco real estate owned by the trust were destroyed by the fire, including those on the large parcel at Eighth and Market Streets which the trust still owns, and on which the Hotel Whitcomb now stands. Some time after the San Francisco fire the trustee of the said trust adopted the policy of improving the real estate owned by the trust, and of converting the other assets of the estate to accomplish that purpose. As a result of said policy and of the acquisition of additional parcels of real estate, the assets of the trust for several years prior to 1921, and during the years 1921 to 1926, inclusive, consisted almost entirely of improved real estate, including the Whitcomb Hotel and its furniture and equipment. The last item represented an investment of more than $2,000,000.

During the years 1921 to 1926, inclusive, the trust estate suffered exhaustion, wear and tear, as follows:

1921	$43,003.16	1924	$39,258.00
1922	39,408.00	1925	39,108.00
1923	39,408.00	1926	55,833.00

The trustee or trustees of said trust made payments of the income from the trust in equal shares to the widow and two children of A. C. Whitcomb, [35] until the death of his son Adolph, which occurred on September 5, 1914. The testator's widow, Louise P. V. Whitcomb, died on June 14, 1921. During the years 1921 to 1926, inclusive, the income from said estate was paid as follows:

- 1921 1/3 to Louise P. V. Whitcomb until her death on June 14, 1921, and thereafter 1/9 to her estate;
1/3 to Charlotte A. W. Lepic until June 14, 1921, and thereafter 4/9;
1/3 to the widow and two children of Adolph Whitcomb, namely Marguerite T. Whitcomb, Lydia L. Whitcomb and Louise A. F. E. Whitcomb, until June 14, 1921, and thereafter 4/9;
- 1922) 1/9 to the estate of testator's widow,
) Louise P. V. Whitcomb;
- 1923)
)
- 1924) 4/9 to the testator's daughter, Charlotte W. Lepic;
and) 4/9 to the widow and two children of the
- 1925) testator's son, namely, Marguerite T. Whitcomb, Lydia L. Whitcomb and Louise A. F. E. Whitcomb.
- 1926 1/2 to testator's daughter, Charlotte A. W. Lepic;
1/2 to the widow and two children of the testator's son, namely, Marguerite T. Whitcomb, Lydia L. Whitcomb, and Louise A. F. E. Whitcomb.

The trustee of said trust filed fiduciary returns for the years 1921 to 1926, inclusive, and deducted in computing the net income of the trust for each year, the respective amounts above set forth, representing exhaustion, wear and tear sustained by the trust. The trustee, however, did not withhold from the beneficiaries to whom income payments were being made, the amounts represented in the depreciation deduction, and each of said beneficiaries received her ratable share thereof during the years involved herein, as well as in preceding years. [36]

From 1903 to 1928, inclusive the trustee, or trustees of said trust presented an annual account to the beneficiaries entitled to income payments, but did not file any account in the Superior Court of California, which has jurisdiction over the trust until its termination for the settlement of accounts and for other purposes.

On September 5, 1928, James Otis, as trustee of said trust, filed with the Superior Court in San Francisco, his account accompanied by a petition for its allowance. The account covered the period from February 23, 1903, to February 23, 1928, and it set out all of the payments made to the beneficiaries of said trust during that period.

The allowance and approval of said account was opposed by Napoleon Charles Louis Lepic and Charlotte de Rochechouart, children of Charlotte A. W. Lepic, one of the beneficiaries herein, who are two of the remaindermen entitled to part of the corpus of the trust upon the termination thereof, if they be then living. In their objections, which were duly filed with the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the City and County of San Francisco, they allege that the trust property had sustained depreciation during the years 1913 to 1927, inclusive, in the amount of $622,434.11; that no reserve or other provision for such depreciation had been made from the gross income of the trust estate; that said amount of $622,434.11 had been paid by the trustee to the beneficiaries of the trust entitled to the income therefrom, as income, thus impairing the trust property by that amount, and they prayed that the trustee be charged with that amount. All of the parties interested in said trust estate, including Harvard College, were notified of the filing of said account of said trustee, [37] and of said objections, and were represented by counsel at the hearing held thereon. On September 19, 1928, the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the City and County of San Francisco, entered a decree in said matter, which is in part as follows:

It is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the objection of said Napoleon Charles Louis Lepic and Charlotte de Rochechouart to said account that no reserve or other provision for annual depreciation for the years 1913 to 1927, both inclusive, as set forth in said objections, has been made, be, and the same is hereby, sustained; that the amount specified in said objections for each of said respective years from 1913 to 1927 is a proper amount to be allowed for depreciation, said amount for each of said respective years being as follows, to-wit:

Year.	Amount.
1913	$23,751.00
1914	23,070.00
1915	23,748.00
1916	31,248.00
1917	41,222.83
1918	55,302.96
1919	56,273.93
1920	55,585.23
1921	43,003.16
1922	39,408.00
1923	39,408.00
1924	39,258.00
1925	39,108.00
1926	55,833.00

that James Otis, the said Trustee, made the disbursements as stated in his said fourteenth account without deduction of reserves or other provision for depreciation, under and pursuant to the advice of counsel learned in the law and retained by said Trustee, to the effect that under and by virtue of the terms of said Trust it was the duty of said Trustee to make such disbursements without such deduction; that said Trustee [38] in making said disbursements without such deduction was entitled to rely upon said advice of the said counsel, and that said disbursements were so made by said Trustee in good faith and without objection on the part of either the said Napoleon Charles Louis Lepic and/or the said

Charlotte de Rochechouart, or any other person interested in said trust, and that no personal liability of any kind or nature should or does attach to said Trustee or to said James Otis by reason of having made such disbursements, or any of them, without deductions.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the recipients of the income of said trust estate during the period from February 23, 1913, to February 23, 1927, repay to the said Trustee the respective amounts received by them during the years 1913 to 1927, both inclusive, as set forth in said objections of the said Napoleon Charles Louis Lepic and Charlotte de Rochechouart as the respective amount which should have been retained by said Trustee as a reserve for depreciation for each said years 1913 to 1927, both inclusive.

It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that from and after the year ending February 23, 1927, and until the termination of said trust, the said Trustee withhold annually as a reserve for depreciation from the income from the trust property such an amount as may be proper according to the rules and regulations prescribed by the Government of the United States in connection with income tax returns, and if there be no such rules or regulations then such an amount as may be reasonable and proper.

On January 17, 1929, Louise A. Whitcomb, Marguerite T. Whitcomb, Lydia L. Whitcomb, Charlotte A. W. Lepic, Napoleon Charles Louis Lepic, and Charlotte de Rochechouart, executed and delivered to the said James Otis as trustee of said trust, their promissory notes for the amounts by which the distributions made to them exceeded the distribution which would have been made [39] had the trustee retained a reserve for depreciation of the trust property. Charlotte A. W. Lepic, Napoleon Charles Louis Lepic, and Charlotte de Rochechouart executed a joint note. The other notes were separate notes of the individuals concerned. These notes bear no interest and by their terms are payable at the termination of the trust, which will be upon the death of Charlotte A. W. Lepic. A payment of $10,700 has been made to the trust by the Estate of Louise P. V. Whitcomb.

The several petitioners in their returns of income for the years mentioned, did not include the amounts paid to them in those years by the trustee representing their proportionate share of the depreciation sustained and deducted on the fiduciary return of the estate. The respondent increased the income shown on the several returns by said proportionate share of said depreciation, and determined deficiencies in tax as hereinabove set forth.

OPINION.

MARQUETTE.—The sole question presented by the record herein is whether, under the circumstances set forth in the findings of fact, the petitioners in computing their respective incomes for the years 1921 to 1926, inclusive, should include therein that part of the amounts distributed to them by the trustee of the trust created by the last will and testament of A. C. Whitcomb, representing amounts deducted by the trustee in his fiduciary return on account of depreciation of [40] the trust property.

The pertinent statutory provisions are sections 219 (d) of the Revenue Act of 1921; 219 (b) (2) of the Revenue Act of 1924, and 219 (b) (2) of the Revenue Act of 1926.

1921 Act—Section 219 (d):

* * * there shall be included in computing the net income of each beneficiary that part of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which, pursuant to the instrument or order governing the distribution, is distributable to such beneficiary, whether distributed or not, or, if his taxable year is different from that of the estate or trust, then there shall be included in computing his net income his distributive share of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year ending within the taxable year of the beneficiary.

1924 and 1926 Act—Section 219 (b) (2):

There shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the beneficiaries, and the amount of the income collected by a guardian of an infant which is to be held or distributed as the court may direct, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the beneficiaries whether distributed to them or not.

The intent of Congress in enacting the sections of law quoted was to tax each year to the beneficiary of any trust the share of the trust income which was distributable to him in that year, and to tax to the trustee in his fiduciary capacity any income which was not to be distributed. Anna M. Chambers, et al., 17 B. T. A. 820. We must therefore look to the will of A. C. Whitcomb to determine [41] what part of the income of the trust under consideration was distributable to the petitioners.

The trust which produced the income in question was created by the last will and testament of A. C. Whitcomb, and it and its trustee or trustees are within the jurisdiction of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the City and County of San Francisco, and the decree of that Court respecting the trust, when not reversed or modified by a tribunal having appropriate appellate jurisdiction, is binding upon all the parties interested in the trust. Its decrees with respect to the trust are also binding on the several Federal Courts.

Uterhart v. United States, 240 U. S. 598. That Court has determined and decreed that the trustee should have, prior to 1927, deducted from the gross income of the trust and retained in his possession amounts adequate to offset the depreciation of the trust property, and the trustee has been directed to deduct and retain amounts for depreciation in 1928 and thereafter. While the proceeding before the Superior Court may have been a friendly one, as is urged by counsel for the respondent, nevertheless all parties interested in the trust, including Harvard College, the contingent remainderman, were notified and appeared in person or by counsel, and the decree is binding on all of them and fixes the amount of income distributable to each beneficiary. Farewell v. Commissioner, 38 Fed. (2d), 791-795. And the judgment of the Court is that during the years 1921 to 1926, inclusive, the petitioners were entitled only to the income of the trust after deducting and setting [42] aside adequate amounts for depreciation of the trust property, and that they should repay to the trustee what they had received in excess of the proportionate share of the income so computed. In other words, no part of the payments made to them out of the amount deducted for depreciation belonged to them.

In the case of E. L. E. Brenneman, et al., 10 B. T. A. 544, we said in discussing a situation similar to the one here presented:

We must, therefore, look to the will of L. A. Brenneman to discover what was the distributable share of income of each of the petitioners. See Estate of Virginia I. Stern, supra. Paragraph (a) of the third clause of the will directs the trustees to "invest and from time to time re-invest the said trust estate * * *." And, in the same paragraph, it is provided that "the said trustees shall collect and receive the income or interest from said trust estate and pay out and disburse the same as hereinafter provided * * *." Paragraph (b) of the third clause directs the trustees "to set aside exclusively for the use of my wife, one-third of said trust estate * * * and to pay her annually during her natural life the net income or interest therefrom * * *." Paragraph (g) of the third clause directs that "when my son and daughter arrive at the age of twenty-one years the trustees shall annually thereafter pay to each of them his or her share of the income and interests on the trust estate, the payment to each to be proportionate to his or her share in said trust estate itself.

Prior to the years in question the trustees, with the acquiescence of the beneficiaries, interpreted the directions of the decedent to mean that only "net income" of the trust estate, as that term is used in the taxing statutes, should be distributed to the beneficiaries. Accordingly, they set up reserves to conserve the corpus of the trust. In 1917 and 1918, as well as the years in question, the trustees took deductions for depreciation and depletion [43] of the oil-producing property and distributed to the beneficiaries only the net income so determined.

It is strenuously urged by the petitioners that the interpretation thus placed on the will cannot be collaterally attacked. It is undoubtedly true that as between the parties in interest an interpretation of long standing placed on the instrument by them will not be disturbed and the courts of Pennsylvania have so held. Appeal of Follmer, 37 Pa. 121; Hagerty v. Albright, 52 Pa. 274. We are not inclined therefore lightly to cast aside or disregard the interpretation placed upon the trust instrument by the parties thereto and adopt a contrary view as a basis for the taxes in question. See Grace Scripps Clark, 1 B. T. A. 491. We think that the decedent's will is susceptible of the interpretation placed thereon by the parties in interest and, consequently, we hold that the deductions for depreciation and depletion, the amounts of which are not in dispute, were properly taken by the trustees and do not constitute income to the beneficiaries. The respondent's action in restoring the amounts so taken as deductions by the trustees to taxable income of the respective beneficiaries is, therefore, reversed.

See also, Kate M. Simon, 10 B. T. A. 1186, John L. Whitehurst, 12 B. T. A. 1416; and Anna M. Chambers, et al., supra.

In the present proceeding the facts are much more favorable to the contention of the petitioners than were the facts in the Brenneman case, because in that case amounts for depreciation and depletion of the trust property were deducted and retained by the trustee pursuant to a construction placed upon the will by the beneficiaries, while in the instant proceeding the will was construed by the Courts and a decree entered announcing such construction and fixing the rights of the parties thereunder. [44]

It is also urged by counsel for the respondent that the beneficiaries have not repaid to the trustee the amounts which according to the decree of the Court were overpaid to them, but have given notes payable at the termination of the trust. This, however, does not in our opinion change the situation. The amounts in question did not belong to the petitioners, and in our theory of the law cannot be income to them. Whether the petitioners ever repay such amounts to the trustee is a matter between them and the trustee and the other parties interested in the trust.

It is our opinion that under the terms of the last will and testament of A. C. Whitcomb, the amount distributable annually to the petitioners herein during the years 1921 to 1926, inclusive, was the income of the trust computed by deducting from gross income amounts for depreciation of the trust property, and that the respondent erred in taxing to the petitioners more than their proportionate share of the net income of the trust so computed.

Judgment will be entered under Rule 50. [45]

MURDOCK (dissenting).—The decedent died in 1889 and the trust in question, so far as we know, began to function shortly thereafter. The account which was objected to covered only the period from February 23, 1903, to February 23, 1928. Prior accounts must have been approved in which there was no deduction for depreciation. Wear, tear and exhaustion of property, sometimes called depreciation, does not depend upon revenue acts. Yet, we see that the objection of those opposing the account related to depreciation which had been sustained from 1913 to 1927 only. 1913 was the first year that there was an income-tax act which might affect these petitioners. We must assume that during all of the years that the trust existed, up to the year 1928, the income from the trust property, undiminished by any amount representing depreciation, had been paid regularly to those having life estates. During the taxable years here in question no one made any objection to this action of the trustee, and he had the advice of counsel that under the terms of the trust it was his duty to distribute the full amount to those having life estates. The will made no specific provision for depreciation, and the general rule in such cases is that the life beneficiaries take all income undiminished by depreciation. In re Hoyt, 160 N. Y. 607, 55 N. E. 282; Devenney v. Devenney, 74 Ohio St. 96, 77 N. E. 688; Old Colony Trust Company v. Smith, Mass. , 165 N. E. 657; Blair v. Blair, 82 Kan. 464, 108 Pac. 827; Reed v. Longstreet, 71 N. J. Eq. 37, 63 Atl. 500; Dooley v. Penland, ..... Tenn. ...., 300 S. W. 9. There is no reason to suppose that this testator in 1889 intended that the income from his estate should be reduced by depreciation before being distributed to the life beneficiaries. Gay v. Focke, 291 Fed. 721. No reserve [46] for depreciation was established or provided for by the trustee until several years after the taxable years involved. Then, apparently by mutual consent, a retroactive order of a Court was obtained as a result of which the trustee in January, 1929, for the first time, was enabled to show a reserve for depreciation of $622,434.11 on his books although he had in his possession only $10,700 returned by the estate of Louise P. V. Whitcomb. Others to whom distributions had been made, including those who objected to the account, gave the trustee their notes bearing interest and payable only at the termination of the trust. These notes were supposed to restore to the trustee the balance of the amounts which had been distributed by him which in reality represented depreciation.

Louise P. V. Whitcomb, Charlotte A. W. Lepie and Marguerite T. Whitcomb were the petitioners in the case of Louise P. V. Whitcomb et al., 4 B. T. A. 80. That case involved the years 1917 to 1920. The petitioners there contended that under the same will which is involved in this case, the net income of the trust, the distributable share of which was taxable to the beneficiaries, was the statutory net income divided into the number of shares provided in the will. We there held, on April 23, 1926, that the life beneficiaries were taxable with their full distributable share of the income of the trust undiminished by depreciation. Marguerite T. Whitcomb appealed from the decision of the Board in that case as to the year 1918, to the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia. The facts as to that year were similar to the facts before the Board in the present case. The Court in affirming the Board's decision, stated: [47]

The appellant as life tenant in the trust estate was entitled to receive the full one-ninth of the income therefrom without regard to exhaustion or wear and tear of the corpus of the estate, and that is what appellant actually received from the trustee as her distributive share of the income. The trustee was not entitled to withhold any part of the income of the trust estate in order to make good the exhaustion or wear and tear of the capital assets of the estate; nor did the trustee in fact do so. Capital losses in such cases fall upon the reversioners or remaindermen, and not upon the life tenant. Therefore, the payment made by the trustee to appellant was in fact and law the distributive shares of the income to which she was entitled as life tenant, and consisted in no part of capital depreciation restored to her. It was therefore taxable in her hands. This conclusion is not negatived by the fact that the trustee was entitled to enter deductions for capital losses or gains in his return for the trust estate as a single entity.

This decision of the Court was rendered on April 2, 1928. Prior thereto, on January 14, 1925, the Circuit Court of Appeals, First Circuit, had decided similarly in Baltzell v. Mitchell, 3 Fed. (2d) 428, cert. denied 268 U. S. 690. Thereafter, on September 5, 1928, the trustee filed the account and the question of his duty to reserve depreciation was raised for the first time. There was a close family relation between the life beneficiaries and the remaindermen who made the objections to the account. It is easily conceivable that the only benefit sought from the Probate Court proceeding was support for the position taken by the life beneficiaries in excluding from their income tax returns the amounts representing depreciation, and thus avoidance of the effect of the adverse decisions of this Board and of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia on their income tax liability for other years. During all of those years the petitioners actually received and enjoyed the amounts here in controversy, and during those years they had no reason to suppose that their enjoyment of these amounts would ever be questioned. The [48] only reason that even a semblance of question arose was because some of those persons who were enjoying the amounts, in effect, asked the Probate Court to hold that they had no right to enjoy them, and nobody objecting, the Court so held. Under such circumstances, I do not believe that they should be relieved from including as a part of their gross income the full amount which they received and enjoyed during each of the taxable years in question. Cf. Jackson v. Smietanka, 272 Fed. 970; Lucas v. American Code Company, 280 U. S. 445; Commissioner v. Sanford & Brooks, ..... U. S. .... If the trustee erred in failing to deduct depreciation before distributing the income of this trust, the error had its inception long prior to the taxable years in question and long prior to 1913. The amount returned to the trustee in 1928 and the amount of the notes delivered to him at that time, then represent only a part of the amounts erroneously distributed, and there was no reason for holding that it was the amounts they received in the taxable years which they returned. The order of the Court will, of course, have its effect prospectively upon distributions, but under the circumstances of this case I do not think it should be given retroactive effect to accomplish the purpose sought by these petitioners. Cf. Weiss v. Wiener, 279 U. S. 333; Rosenberger v. McCaughn, 25 Fed. (2d) 699.

PETITION FOR REVIEW AND ASSIGNMENTS OF ERROR.

To the Honorable Judges of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit:

NOW COMES David Burnet, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, by his attorneys, G. A. Youngquist, Assistant Attorney General, C. M. Charest, General Counsel, Bureau of Internal Revenue, and John D. Foley, Special Attorney, Bureau of Internal Revenue, and respectfully shows:

I.

The petitioner for review (hereinafter referred to as the Commissioner) is the duly appointed and qualified Commissioner of Internal Revenue of the United States, holding his office by virtue of the laws of the United States. The respondent (hereinafter referred to as the administrator) is an individual inhabitant of the City of San Francisco, State of California, and is the duly appointed and acting administrator of the Estate of Louise P. V. Whitcomb, deceased. Said Louise P. V. Whitcomb, hereinafter referred to as the taxpayer, was up to the date of her death, on June 14, 1921, a citizen and resident of the French Republic.

II.

The Commissioner determined a deficiency in income tax for the period from January 1, to June 14, 1921, in the amount of $723.60, and on March 23, 1926, in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 283 of the Revenue Act of 1926, sent to said Louise P. V. Whitcomb by registered mail a notice of said deficiency. Thereafter the administrator duly appealed said notice of deficiency to the United States Board of Tax Appeals. Said appeal was heard by said Board on May 19, 1930. On February 11, 1931, said Board promulgated its interlocutory decision containing its findings of fact and opinion, and on June 25, 1931, entered its order of redetermination wherein it ordered and decided that there was a deficiency in income tax for the period from January 1, to June 14, 1921, in the amount of $95.61.

In the period from January 1, to June 14, 1921, said Louise P. V. Whitcomb was one of the beneficiaries of a trust established under the will of one A. C. Whitcomb, deceased. By the terms of said A. C. Whitcomb's will the income of the trust was required to be distributed among the beneficiaries thereof. During the calendar year 1921 the trust property sustained depreciation in the amount of $43,003.16. In distributing the [51] income of the trust among the beneficiaries, the trustee did not take into account the depreciation sustained by the property of the trust, but distributed to each beneficiary his or her proportionate part of the income of the trust without regard to any depreciation. The will of said A. C. Whitcomb was silent upon the question whether depreciation was to be taken into account in determining the income of the trust available for distribution among the beneficiaries. On September 5, 1928, the trustee filed his account covering the period from February 23, 1913, to February 23, 1928, with the Superior Court for the City and County of San Francisco, California, together with a petition that the account be approved. The account was objected to by two of the remaindermen of the trust. On September 19, 1928, the Court entered a decree whereby it found that the trustee's action in not reserving necessary amounts for depreciation before distributing the income of the trust among the beneficiaries was improper and whereby it directed that the recipients of the income of the trust for the period from February 23, 1913, to February 23, 1927, pay back to the trustee the excess amounts received by them. The payment of $10,700.00 has been made on behalf of the Estate of Louise P. V. Whitcomb, but it does not appear from the record what year or years are covered by said payment.

III.

The Commissioner says that in the record and proceedings before the Board of Tax Appeals and in the decision and order of redetermination promulgated and entered by the Board of Tax Appeals manifest error occurred and intervened to the prejudice of the Commissioner, and the Commissioner assigns the following errors, and each of them, which, he avers, occurred in the said record, proceedings, decision and order of redetermination and upon which he relies to reverse the said decision and order of redetermination so promulgated and entered by the Board of Tax Appeals, to-wit:

1. The Board erred in holding that the distributions made by the trustee to said Louise P. V. Whitcomb were not income to her in their entirety.

2. The Board erred in holding that the distributions of the income of the trust received by said Louise P. V. Whitcomb without diminution on account of depreciation sustained by the trust property were not taxable income to her in their entirety.

3. The Board erred in holding that a payment made in a subsequent year and not shown to have related to an alleged excessive depreciation in the taxable year had the effect of keeping any portion of the distribution in the taxable year from being income to the taxpayer.

4. The Board erred in holding that the decree of a Court passed in a subsequent year in a friendly suit to which the Government was not a party could affect the Government's right to income tax in the year in which the income was received.

5. The Board erred in not approving the deficiency proposed for assessment by the Commissioner. [52]

WHEREFORE, the Commissioner petitions that the decision of the Board of Tax Appeals be reviewed by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, that a transcript of the record be prepared in accordance with law and with the rules of said Court and transmitted to the clerk of said Court for filing, and that appropriate action be taken to the end that the errors complained of may be reviewed and corrected by said Court.

STATEMENT OF EVIDENCE.

The following is a statement of evidence in narrative form in the above-entitled cause. This cause came on for hearing before the Honorable John J. Marquette, Member of the United States Board of Tax Appeals, on May 19, 1930, in San Francisco, California. V. K. Butler, Jr., Esq., Alfred Sutro, Esq., and Felix T. Smith, Esq., appeared for the respondent and John D. Foley, Special Attorney, Bureau of Internal Revenue, appeared for the petitioner.

Whereupon

a witness for respondent, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

My name is James Otis. My address is 2231 Broadway, San Francisco, California. I am an importer and exporter, a member of the firm of Otis-McAllister Company. I am sole trustee of the trust created by the will of A. C. Whitcomb and have been so since 1896. I am the sole trustee. I recall that in 1928 I had occasion to prepare an affidavit setting out in narrative form the history of the trust estate investments made from the time of the creation of the trust until November, 1928, when the affidavit was made.

The witness identified a copy of said affidavit. Said copy was thereupon admitted in evidence as respondent's exhibit No. 1, and is hereto attached as Appendix 1.

In 1928 I filed an account as trustee in the Probate Department of the Superior Court in San Francisco having jurisdiction of this trust. That is the account. The statements contained in that account and all the items listed therein are a correct statement and report of my trusteeship and of the payments made by me under it.

Said account was thereupon admitted in evidence as respondent's exhibit No. 2 and is hereto attached as Appendix 2.

I filed a petition for settlement of the account.

The witness then identified the petition of James Otis for the settlement of his 14th account as trustee and it was admitted in evidence as respondent's exhibit No. 3. It is hereto attached as Appendix 3.

The witness then identified "Objections to the 14th Account of James Otis as trustee, filed on behalf of Napoleon Lepic and Charlotte de Rochechouart." Said objections were thereupon admitted in evidence as respondent's exhibit No. 4 and are hereto attached as Appendix 4.

The witness then identified his answer filed to the objections to his account, which said answer was admitted in evidence as respondent's exhibit No. 5 and is hereto attached as Appendix 5.

The witness then identified a decree of the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the City and County of San Francisco, settling the 14th account of James Otis as trustee, which said decree was admitted in evidence as respondent's exhibit No. 6 and is hereto attached to Appendix 6.

The witness then identified an amended order and decree settling the account, which said amended order and decree was admitted in evidence as respondent's exhibit No. 7 and is hereto attached as Appendix 7.

(By Mr. BUTLER.)

Q. The order and the decree and the amended order and decree settling the account directed the trustee to demand and obtain from the beneficiaries repayments of certain sums representing the amount of the depreciation reserve required to be set up by the Court, but which was decreed to have been paid improperly to the beneficiaries. Did you demand and obtain repayment from the beneficiaries, Mr. Otis?

A. I did.

Q. I exhibit to you, Mr. Otis, four promissory notes, which I will subsequently describe in detail, and ask you to identify them.

A. I do.

Q. Did you receive these notes from the persons who are described therein?

A. I did.

Q. Are the sums for which the notes are made the respective proportionate amounts of the depreciation which you had paid to the beneficiaries, and which they were required to repay to you? [56]

A. They are.

The promissory note of Louise A. F. E. Whitcomb, dated January 17, 1929, payable to James Otis, trustee under the will of A. C. Whitcomb, deceased, was then admitted in evidence as respondent's exhibit No. 9 and is hereto attached as Appendix 9.

The promissory note of Marie Marguerite Thuret Whitcomb, dated January 17, 1929, payable to James Otis, trustee under the will of A. C. Whitcomb, deceased, was then admitted in evidence as respondent's exhibit No. 10 and is hereto attached to Appendix 10.

The promissory note of Lydia Louise Ida Whitcomb, dated January 17, 1929, payable to James Otis, trustee under the will of A. C. Whitcomb, deceased, was then admitted in evidence as respondent's exhibit No. 11 and is hereto attached as Appendix 11.

The promissory note of Charlotte Andree Whitcomb Lepic, dated January 17, 1929, payable to James Otis, in which note Napoleon Charles Louis Lepic and Charlotte de Rochechouart are named as joint makers, was then admitted in evidence as respondent's exhibit No. 8 and is hereto attached as Appendix 8.

The sums represented by these notes include the sums repayable to me with respect to the years 1921 to 1926. I also received a cash payment in the amount of $10,700 from Mr. Freuler, the administrator of the estate of Mrs. Whitcomb, on behalf of said estate.

Mr. BUTLER.—Will it be stipulated that John Freuler, who is named in each of these promissory notes as attorney in fact of the respective makers was such attorney and is such attorney in fact? The original powers are on file with the Department, I believe.

Mr. FOLEY.—I so stipulate.

Mr. BUTLER.—The two notes which I have exhibited to Mr. Otis are two notes already introduced and identified, but they are signed by John Freuler, as guardian of Louise Ida Whitcomb and as guardian of Louise A. F. E. Whitcomb. Will it be stipulated that Mr. Freuler, as guardian, had authority to execute these notes and that he executed them as such guardian, and that the execution thereof was reported by him in his account in the matter of the guardianship proceedings in the Superior Court of San Francisco, and that the account was settled and the execution of the notes approved? I have certified copies of [57] the proceedings, and will be glad to exhibit them to counsel in support of the stipulation.

* * * * *

Mr. FOLEY.—That stipulation that you suggest is satisfactory.

On cross-examination the witness testified:

The only cash I have received from these beneficiaries is the payment of $10,700 from Mr. Freuler as administrator of the estate of Louise P. V. Whitcomb. The others have given me notes which are payable at the termination of the trust. They have paid nothing on the notes up to date.

The Findings of Fact made by the Board of Tax Appeals insofar as they are not inconsistent with the foregoing are agreed to be correct and to be fully supported by substantial and competent evidence.

The foregoing evidence is all of the material evidence adduced at the hearing before the Board of Tax Appeals, and the same is approved by the undersigned, C. M. Charest, General Counsel, Bureau of Internal Revenue, as attorney for the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

C. M. CHAREST,

General Counsel, Bureau of Internal Revenue.

The foregoing is all of the material evidence adduced at the hearing before the Board of Tax Appeals, and the same is approved by the undersigned, as attorney for the respondent on review.

W. W. SPALDING,

Attorney for Respondent on Review.

The foregoing is all of the material evidence adduced at the hearing and in order that the same may be preserved and made a part of the record, this statement of evidence is duly approved and settled this 12th day of April, 1932.

JOHN J. MARQUETTE,

Member, United States Board of Tax Appeals.

APPENDIX 1.

EXHIBIT 1.

AFFIDAVIT OF JAMES OTIS, TRUSTEE OF
THE TRUST CREATED BY THE WILL OF A. C. WHITCOMB, DECEASED.

State of California,
City and County of San Francisco—ss.

James Otis, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That A. C. Whitcomb, deceased, by his last will, appointed one Jerome Lincoln trustee of the trust by said last will created, with power of appointment on the part of said Jerome Lincoln. That on or about the 3rd day of September, 1891, the said Jerome Lincoln, acting under his said power of appointment, by an instrument in writing, duly executed, given and made, appointed Winfield S. Jones, Jerome B. Lincoln and this deponent to be his successors in the said trust. That on or about the 23rd day of February, 1896, the said Jerome Lincoln died and the said Winfield S. Jones, Jerome B. Lincoln and this deponent became the trustees of said trust. That thereafter said Winfield S. Jones and said Jerome B. Lincoln died. That at all times since their deaths and since the year 1905, said James Otis has been the sole trustee of said trust.

That the last will and testament of said A. C. Whitcomb, deceased, was in the words and figures set forth in Exhibit "A," hereto annexed and made a part hereof as completely as if herein particularly set forth. That the decree of final distribution of said estate in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the City and County of San Francisco, was in the words and figures set forth in Exhibit "B," hereto annexed and made part hereof as completely as if herein particularly set forth.

That on April 11, 1890, the lot and improvements at Pacific and Davis Streets, in San Francisco, more particularly described in said decree of final distribution hereto attached, were of the value of $70,000. That prior to the San Francisco fire of April, 1906, this deponent and his predecessor trustee, acting on behalf of the said trust, constructed improvements on said lot at a cost of $128,737., which were totally destroyed by said fire. That in the year 1906, and in the months of September, October and December, this deponent collected insurance in the total amount of $54,500. for damages to said improvements caused by said fire. That between December 7, 1906, and March 19, 1908, this deponent, acting as trustee of said trust, constructed a class "C" building on said lot at a cost of $176,852., said building having an estimated life of forty years. That between December 23, 1919, and January 20, 1920, this deponent, acting as trustee of said trust, constructed an additional improvement upon said lot at a cost of $3,294., which additional improvement will last only for the remaining life of the building.

That on April 11, 1890, the lot and improvements at Broadway and Front Street, San Francisco, more particularly described in said decree of final distribution hereto attached, were of the value of $45,000. That said improvements were of slight value, and were destroyed by said fire of 1906. That no further improvements thereon were constructed by this deponent or his predecessor trustee prior to said San Francisco [60] fire. That on October 1, 1906, this deponent collected insurance in the amount of $4,900. for damages to said improvements caused by said fire. That in the year 1908 this deponent, acting as trustee of said trust, completed the construction of a building upon said lot, costing $122,846., said building having an estimated life of thirty-three and one-third years from said date. That between September 14, 1911, and January 24, 1913, this deponent, acting as trustee of said trust, constructed additional improvements thereto at a cost of $3,262., which improvements will last only for the remaining life of the building. That on May 6, 1919, said building was damaged by fire. That on January 21, 1919, this deponent, acting as trustee of said trust, completed the restoration of said building at a cost of $3,172.

EXHIBIT "B."

In the Superior Court of the City and County of San Francisco, State of California.

In the Matter of the Estate of

A. C. Whitcomb,

Deceased.

DECREE.

Jerome Lincoln and Adolphus Darwin Tuttle, executors of the will of Adolphus Carter Whitcomb, the above named decedent, having heretofore, to wit: on the 24th day of March, 1890, rendered and filed herein a true account and report of their administration of said estate, which account was for final settlement, and having filed with said account a petition praying that said account be settled, allowed and approved by this Court, and that final distribution of said estate be made to the persons entitled thereto; and said petition coming on regularly to be heard on the 7th day of April, 1890, proof having been made to the satisfaction of the Court that due and legal notice of the hearing of said petition for settlement of said account and final distribution had been given according to law and in the manner and for the time heretofore ordered and directed by the Court, and the hearing of application for final distribution having been regularly continued until this day;

NOW, on this 11th day of April, 1890, it appearing to the Court that all claims and debts against said decedent, all taxes on said estate, and all debts, expenses and charges of [70] administration of said estate have been fully paid and discharged by the said executors; and it appearing that under and in accordance with the order and decree of this Court made on the 30th day of September, 1889, the executors have paid over, distributed and delivered to the several legatees under said will the legacies in said will bequeathed to them respectively, to wit:

To the San Francisco Protestant Orphan Asylum and to the Ladies' Protection and Relief Society, both of San Francisco, California, each the sum of Five Thousand ($5,000) Dollars.

To Mrs. Sarah Brazer Berry, of Washington, D. C., the sum of Five Thousand ($5,000) Dollars.

To Adolphus Darwin Tuttle, of Hancock, New Hampshire, One Hundred Thousand ($100,000) Dollars of Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Bonds, to hold the same as sole trustee for the benefit of Love Maria Whitcomb Willis, cousin of the testator, of Glenora, Yates County, New York, and her daughter Edith, upon the trust in said will set forth, Henry Foster Whitcomb, named in said will as co-trustee with said Tuttle, having declined to act as such trustee, and having refused and renounced said trust.

To Louise Palmyre Vion Whitcomb, widow of the testator, Two Hundred Thousand ($200,000) Dollars of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Bonds.

To the town of Hancock, New Hampshire, Twenty Thousand ($20,000) Dollars of said Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Bonds, upon the trust and for the purposes in said will set forth.

And it appearing that said estate has now been fully administered by said executors, and that all the steps in said administration have been regularly had and taken and that said estate is now ready for distribution and in a condition to be closed.

And it further appearing that at the time of making and [71] balancing the final account so rendered the residue of money in the hands of the executors was the sum of Eighty Thousand Six Hundred and Fifty-five  $\frac{19}{100}$  (\$80,655.19) that the executors have since received the sum of Seventeen Hundred and Eighty-four  $\frac{87}{100}$  Dollars, and disbursed the sum of Twenty-one Thousand Five Hundred and Forty-seven  $\frac{30}{100}$  Dollars as appears by the supplemental account filed herewith, leaving a balance now in the hands of the executors of Sixty Thousand Eight Hundred and Ninety-two  $\frac{78}{100}$ ; and it appearing that the said supplemental account is true and correct and supported by proper vouchers.

And it appearing that of the real and personal property so ready for distribution in the hands of the executors a part consists of thirty-one forty-eighths (31-48) parts of the real property known as the "Jimeno Rancho," as particularly described in the inventory, together with the W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  of the S. W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  of section 11; and the E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  of the S. E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  of section 10; and the N. E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  of N. E.  $\frac{1}{4}$  of section 15, township 12 N., R. 1 E., which had been purchased by the decedent and the said Hagar with moneys arising from the "Jimeno Rancho," and had been by them incorporated with and made a part of said ranch and of 31-48 parts of the mortgages, contracts, moneys, debts and dues arising therefrom, now standing of record in the name of George Hagar, of Colusa, and ready to be conveyed by the said Hagar, according to his declaration of trust, made by him in writing, to the proper devisees of the said will, and includes moneys therefrom already paid into the hands of the executors by the said George Hagar, which last described moneys amount to the sum of Thirty-one Thousand (31,000) Dollars, all of which interest in the "Jimeno Rancho" and mortgages, contracts, moneys, debts and dues are hereinafter particularly described.

And it further appearing that the said will of said de- [72] cedent contained among other the following clause:

“6. I give to my nephew, the said Adolphus Darwin Tuttle, and to his son, Charles Whitcomb Tuttle, both of said Hancock, all my interest, whether real, personal or mixed, in the ‘Jimeno Rancho’, so called, wholly or partially in the Counties of Colusa and Sutter in said California, in all mortgages, contracts, debts or dues arising therefrom, and I recommend to my said nephew to leave his portion thereof, after his own death and the death of his wife, in trust for the said Charles Whitcomb Tuttle and to his children or descendants, if any be alive at the time of the death of his said son; and if there be none so alive, to Harvard College, Cambridge, Massachusetts; one-half of the income thereof to be used by said college for the assistance of students of said college to complete their regular course therein, and the other half of the income thereof for the general uses of the college, apart howfrom any participation therein by the Divinity School.”

And application having been made to this Court to make a construction of the said clause of the will and to adjudge and determine in its decree of final distribution whether the one-half part of the interest of the decedent in and to the real and personal property of the said “Jimeno Rancho” is, by the said will, devised and bequeathed to the said Adolphus Darwin Tuttle in fee simple absolute, without restraint upon his power of alienation, or whether the recommendation in the said clause contained creates a trust binding upon him and operating to create a remainder after his death and the death of his wife in favor of Charles Whitcomb Tuttle, his children or descendants, or Harvard College: and the Court at the said hearing of the petition for final distribution having heard and considered the claims of the respective parties argued by Edward J. Pringle, Esq., and Jerome [73] B. Lincoln, Esq., who appeared for the said Adolphus Darwin Tuttle, and claimed that the devise to him was absolute and without trust or restriction upon his power of alienation, and Sidney V. Smith, Esq., who appeared for the adverse parties, claiming that a trust was imposed upon the said Adolphus Darwin Tuttle, and a remainder created after the death of the said Adolphus Darwin Tuttle and his wife; and testimony having been taken in open Court and argument of counsel had on behalf of the respective parties, and the Court being fully advised in the matter;

And it further appearing that in and by his said will the decedent devised and bequeathed all the rest and residue of his property, real, personal and mixed, excepting what property the decedent had in France, to the said Jerome Lincoln, upon the trust hereinafter by this decree declared and imposed;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that said supplemental account be, and the same is, hereby settled and approved, and it is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the executors retain out of the funds in their hands the sum of Fifty Dollars for payment of Clerk's fees and other expenses of closing the estate.

A. C. WHITCOMB,
Deceased.

PETITION FOR SETTLEMENT OF FOUR-TEENTH ACCOUNT OF TRUSTEE.

The petition of James Otis, as trustee under the will of A. C. Whitcomb, deceased, respectfully shows:

That he is the surviving trustee of the trust created by the will of the above named decedent.

That said will was admitted to probate in the above entitled Court and estate of said decedent distributed upon certain trusts in said will set forth, and that your petitioner is the surviving trustee of said trusts.

That at various times your petitioner and his predecessors, as such trustee, filed their accounts in said Court and that said accounts were settled by said Court. That the last account so filed and settled was the thirteenth annual account of your petitioner as such trustee covering the period from February 23, 1902, to February 23, 1903, and settled, allowed and approved by the Hon. J. V. Coffee, April 7, 1903. That all of said proceedings were had and taken prior to the fire of April 18, 1906, and that all the records of said proceedings in the above entitled Court have been destroyed. [109]

That subsequent to said thirteenth annual account, your petitioner filed in the above entitled Court no accounts as such trustee, but such accounts were rendered annually in writing to the beneficiaries of said trusts and accepted by them.

That the account filed herewith as the fourteenth account of your petitioner shows the amount of the receipts and disbursements of your petitioner, as such trustee, during the twenty-five years commencing February 23, 1903, and ending February 23, 1928. That the details of said receipts and disbursements are set forth in said accounts annually rendered to the beneficiaries of said trust and in the books and records of your petitioner. That said details are voluminous and that it is not practical for your petitioner to present said details or file them in this Court, but that your petitioner offers to produce the same in Court upon the hearing of this petition, and prays that they be deemed to constitute a part of said account as so filed.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner prays that the account filed herewith may be settled, allowed and approved as filed.

Attorneys for Petitioner. [110]

OBJECTIONS TO THE FOURTEENTH ACCOUNTS OF JAMES OTIS, TRUSTEE.

Napoleon Charles Louis Lepic and Charlotte de Rochechouart oppose the allowance and approval of the fourteenth account of James Otis, as trustee under the will of A. C. Whitcomb, deceased, filed in the above entitled matter, and by way of objection to said account respectfully show:

1. That opponents are beneficiaries of the trust under the will of said decedent and entitled, upon the termination of said trust, to take and receive, intact, from the trustee one quarter each of the trust estate.

2. That a great part of said trust estate is, and has been throughout the years 1913 to 1927, inclusive, invested in buildings and improvements subject to deterioration and depreciation and which have deteriorated and depreciated in value as follows:

that no reserves or other provision for such depreciation have been made by the trustee from the gross income of the trust estate; that said sum of $622,434.11 has been paid out by the trustee to the beneficiaries of said trust entitled to the income thereof, as income, thus impairing in a like amount the principal of the trust estate; and that said sum of $622,434.11 is included in the payments to income beneficiaries set up in said fourteenth account and for which the trustee takes credit therein.

3. That upon sales of bonds and real property of the trust estate losses have been sustained as follows:

In 1922	$ 4,812.50

ANSWER OF TRUSTEE TO OBJECTIONS TO FOURTEENTH ACCOUNT.

James Otis, as trustee under the will of A. C. Whitcomb, deceased, answering the objections of Napoleon Charles Louis Lepic and Charlotte de Rochechouart to his fourteenth account on file herein, admits, denies and alleges as follows:

I.

Admits the allegations in paragraph 1.

II.

Admits the allegations in paragraph 2, and in this behalf alleges that the disbursements made in said fourteenth account were made without deduction of reserves or other provision for the depreciation mentioned in said paragraph, under and pursuant to the advice of counsel learned in the law retained by said trustee, to the effect that under and by virtue of the terms of said trust it was the duty of said trustee to make such disbursements without such deduction; that said trustee does not know now whether said advice was correct or not, and prays that this Court may decide upon the correctness of said claim [114] so advanced by objectors herein, for the future guidance of said trustee; that by reason of the fact that these payments have been made for many years without objection, in good faith and on the advice of counsel, it is neither fair, just nor equitable that said trustee be charged on account thereof, save and except to the extent that trustee may be able to reclaim from the recipients of said disbursements such amount as the Court may hold to have been erroneously paid to them.

III.

Admits the allegations of paragraph 3, and in this behalf alleges that since the creation of said trust, large gains and profits have been made through sales and other dealings in bonds and real property of the estate, and that said profits have been applied in increasing the capital of said trust estate; that such increases in the capital of said trust estate amount to a sum largely in excess of the amount stated in said paragraph, $29,643.27, and that if said sums mentioned in said paragraph are to be deducted from the income of the trust estate, then said other sums largely exceeding them are to be added to the amount distributable as income of said trust estate, and the capital thereof reduced accordingly.

James Otis, being first duly sworn, deposes and says: That he is the trustee named in the foregoing answer, that he has read said answer and knows the contents thereof and that the same is true of his own knowledge except as to the matters therein stated on information or belief, and as to those matters, that he believes it to be true.
